

Sponsorship Package

We are thrilled to extend an invitation for your sponsorship of the 2023 Smart Infrastructure Summit and the 15th Australian Network of Structural Health Monitoring (ANSHM) Workshop.

This event, jointly hosted by James Cook University and Rockfield Technologies, is scheduled to take place in Townsville from November 23rd to 24th, 2023. The central theme for this year's summit is "Infrastructure Digitization for a Net Zero Transition." This theme holds paramount significance for asset-intensive industries such as Transportation, Ports, Mining, Rail, and Utilities.

We anticipate that the summit will bring together 200 practitioners, renowned scholars, industry thought leaders, government authorities, and asset owners and advisors from various asset-intensive industries. This presents an exceptional opportunity for your brand to establish a presence, demonstrating your influence and commitment to infrastructure digitization and a net-zero future.

We offer the following sponsorship levels:

Gold Sponsorship

Cost: $3,500 (Excluding GST)

- Benefits:
- o Inclusion of your logos on all promotional materials
 - o Prominent banners near the podium
 - o Inclusion of your promotional materials in the conference bags
 - o Opportunity to briefly introduce your company before lunch and morning tea sessions
 - o Four complimentary registrations

Silver Sponsorship

Cost: $2,000 (Excluding GST)

- Benefits:
- o Inclusion of your logos on all promotional materials
 - o Banners prominently displayed at the venue
 - o Inclusion of your promotional materials in the conference bags
 - o Two complimentary registrations

Trade Display Opportunity

Cost: $1,000 (Excluding GST)

A trade display desk will be made available on Day 2 outside the conference venue for your convenience.

- Benefits:
- o Opportunity to showcase your products/services to delegates
 - o Banner displayed at the venue
 - o Inclusion of your promotional materials in the conference bags

Don't miss out on this chance to align your brand with cutting-edge discussions in infrastructure digitisation and the pursuit of a net-zero future. Your support and participation are invaluable to the success of these events.
